Dear Joe,

I am delighted with your recent gifts and to see it was your first donation to FSDB. Thank you for caring about our students!

Generous donors like you fund special reading & math programs, valuable technology and opportunities for our students to socialize while developing important life skills. You help our students become independent and productive citizens.

I will mail updates about our students and encourage you to visit our website to learn more. One day, we'd love for you to tour FSDB's campus. Until then, please let me know if you have any questions.

I hope FSDB continues to earn your support.

Thanks so much Joe - Have a Merry Christmas and safe 2021!

Amy

Dear Mr. Soccodato,

You are amazing. Thank you for your donation to help the students at the Florida School for the Deaf and the Blind (FSDB). Deaf and blind children benefit from the specialized academics, athletics, arts, friendships and so much more that you make possible.

Your gift is extra special as we all live through the pandemic. Please know we look forward to the day in the future when we can invite you to visit FSDB and see for yourself how you impact our students. Until then, we send our warmest wishes for your health and for the health of those closest to you.

With warmest appreciation,

Amy

Hey Joe!
We don't mail too frequently. I'm hiring new staff & hope to get more emails w/ student updates. Lately you'll get a short report of our 2021 grads!

To learn more about FSDB, please go to our website at https://www.fsdbk12.org

I'll send an email of the last update mailed Feb. in case you didn't see it.

Have you considered leaving a gift to FSDB in your will?
Let us know if you'd like more information.
